Power INDUSTRY SERVICES

Wagner Industrial Electric (WIE) has a long, rich history of providing our Utility customers with quality new electrical construction, system upgrades and emergency system restoration. WIE's Power Generation team has extensive experience in the power generation business giving us a comprehensive understanding of the needs of a power generation facility. With the years of experience on a variety of power generation projects, our Power-Gen Group has the ability to efficiently mobilize and manage large work forces on major projects. We have a proven track record for safe, consistent, high quality installations while meeting or exceeding demanding schedules.

Our strong working relationships with national engineering firms enhance our ability to service our customer. Because of our experience, WIE is comfortable providing numerous delivery methods including Turn Key and Design/Build.

WIE is one of the companies comprising MDU Construction Services Group, a subsidiary of MDU Resources Group, Inc. (www.mdu.com), a Fortune 1000 company traded on the New York Stock Exchange. This relationship provides WIE the financial backing of one of the strongest and best managed energy and services companies in the nation. In addition to providing us the financial strength to complete work nationally, we are strengthened by the ability to tap the experience of our sister companies.

Reliable, uninterrupted electrical power begins at the power plant and continues through the power lines. Our Utility customers have come to depend on WIE to achieve this goal seamlessly. Let us partner with you to provide the solution for your Power-Gen Projects!
